EXHAUSTION OF FUEL OIL
ON WEST COAST FEARED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—One third of the Pacific coast's visible supply of fuel oil is exhausted and exhaustion of the remaining supply is threatened unless hydro-electric energy is substituted, D. M. Folsom, former federal fuel oil administrator for the western states, told the Commonwealth club here Friday.

"At present the Pacific coast is dependent upon oil for over seventy per cent of the consumed heat, light and power," he said.

"There is no artificial shortage which confronts the community. It is actual and immediate. There is only a limited area in California which has even a possibility of oil and each month sees some portion of that area tested and condemned by the failure of wild cat wells.

"Copper mines in Arizona, Nevada and Utah and many industries in Washington and Oregon already have been forced back to coal.

"In the end hydroelectric power must replace oil on land wherever it is possible to make the substitution," Folsom said. "The communities have been too anxious in the past to get energy cheaply.

"If we want power for the future some one will have to pay for it," he said.

JEALOUSY OVER WOMAN
HELD CAUSE OF SLAYING

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 23.—Jealousy may have been the motive for the killing of Elmer C. Drewes, the Dartmouth senior, whose body was found last Sunday morning in the outskirts of the city with a bullet through the head. In advancing this theory last night, the police said they had learned that recently Drewes and William P. Brines, the University of Pennsylvania freshman, who is being sought on a warrant charging him with Drewes' murder, had differences over a girl upon at least two occasions.

A woman whose name the authorities declined to divulge, reported to the police today that she had seen Brines on Monday morning what appeared to be bloodstains from the motor car which he later abandoned. No definite clues to Brines' whereabouts have been discovered.

REPAINTING CAR
Carriage painting is not an easy job to be undertaken by the layman, says American Motorist. To repaint a car and do it properly requires experience and care and not merely one but a number of coats of paint. So unless the motorist has a goodly store of patience the job had better be undertaken by a painter of skill and experience.

(By International Service.)

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—Corset-making, a leading industry here, is threatened with slackness during the winter because "the modern women who go in for votes do not wear corsets."

BANDIT'S WOMEN
FRIENDS HELDClaim to Be Mother and Sweetheart of Slain
Bank Robber

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 23.—Two women, said to be the mother and sweetheart of Albert Joyce, the bandit who was killed during the battle yesterday, following the robbery of the Cleveland Trust company's branch at Bedford, are held by the police for investigation.

Jewelry valued at $25,000, including unset diamonds worth $17,000, and $300 in cash were found on the elder woman when she was searched, according to the police. The women were seized when they attempted to get possession of Joyce's body.

The younger woman gave the name of Hazel Grey, and later that of Norma Scott, and said her home was in Oakland, Cal.

While being searched, the elder woman is alleged to have offered the marionettes if she would withhold the information concerning the hidden jewelry and money.

The detention of the women, through whom police hope to establish the identity and activities of other members of the gang, occurred through a singular incident.

DISCOVERED BY CLERK.

Employees of a downtown department store recognized pictures of Joyce, alias Albert Johnson, as a man who purchased a silk bathrobe, costing $100, and other articles several hours before yesterday's holdup. The women returned the bathrobe today, explaining that the man would not be able to use it because he was killed. Their acknowledgment of the clerk's expressions of sympathy aroused her curiosity and the police were notified.

Through an undertaker it was learned that the women had arranged for the transportation of the dead bandit's body to New York.

During the examination the elder woman described herself as Mrs. Mildred Johnson. She insists she was the mother of the dead man and asserts she has four other children who were with her husband at their home in New York. The jewelry, she said, belonged to her son. She found it while packing up preparatory to leaving for New York with the body.

THREE INDICTED.

George J. Luster, said to be the leader of the bandits, and two of his confederates, Harry Stone and Orville Taylor, who were wounded and captured, were indicted by the Cuyahoga county jury on charges of robbery in connection with the holdup. Three true bills were returned.

Luster, however, faces two indictments for firearms offenses.

The members of the gang who escaped after the battle were still at large.

Eight Bedford residents who took part in the repulse of the robbers, were rewarded today by the Cleveland Trust company. E. W. Porter, who killed Joyce, received $1000.

FATHER HEARD FROM.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—William Johnson, father of William Johnson, Jr., who was killed Thursday in a fight with employees of a Cleveland company, but company in Bedford, O., said his son had been wayward since he was sixteen years old.

"My son was hard to manage and got into bad company," the father said. "He served one sentence in Sing Sing and another in Dannemora prison. I don't know what his offenses were. He had half a dozen aliases, none of which I can remember."

"We only heard from him occasionally," the father wired to Cleveland, claiming the body of his son.

MOTHER SHOTS TEACHER FOR REPRIMANDING BOY

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Carmelita Rindoni Friday shot Miss Rosella Reynolds, a school teacher, twice, because Miss Reynolds had reprimanded Mrs. Rindoni's 10-year-old son, Herman. Miss Reynolds is in a hospital where her condition is not considered critical.

Police have been unable to find Mrs. Rindoni but Herman has been placed in the detention home.

Herman was said by school officials to have played truant frequently and was reprimanded several times.

This morning Mrs. Rindoni entered the school room.

"Is that your teacher, Herman?" she asked.

"Si, mother," he is said to have replied.

Mrs. Rindoni drew a revolver, fired twice, and fled.

HER HUSBAND STOLEN,
EX-MATE GETS VERDICT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A sheriff's jury Friday awarded $200,000 to Mrs. Laura Cave Wilson, in her action against Mrs. Bertha Lobit Wilson, charging alienation of her husband's affections.

The verdict is said to establish a litigation. The plaintiff alleged that Wilson married Mrs. Bertha Lobit Wilson without obtaining a divorce.

Mrs. Laura Cave Wilson's father was Major Cave, a railroad builder of Dallas, Texas. She is a founder of the Texas society and a member of the Southern society. Mrs. Bertha Lobit Wilson is the daughter of a banker in Galveston, Texas.

JUDGE SCORNS
NOTE OF THREATLandis Determined to Keep After Socialists for Acts in Wartime

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—A few minutes prior to his address before the Indiana state convention of school teachers, Federal Judge K. M. Landis, received an anonymous note threatening him if he continued his attacks on the radical movement in America. The judge referred to the note in his address and declared that it was the attitude of the radicals during the war that was responsible for the fact that the bodies of thousands of American soldiers lie in France.

TEXT OF NOTE

The note, unsigned, was delivered by mail to the hotel where he is stopping. It said:

"For the last time, you are warned to keep your d— mouth shut concerning charges that you have made against radical movements in speeches at Chicago towns in which you have spoken."

Judge Landis in referring to the note, said:

"My sole hope at this hour is that I may live out my life in full, so that I may fight the treasonable crowd of men who planned and supported the St. Louis platform of the Socialist party. The Socialists did not omit one opportunity to embarrass the government and I intend to omit not one opportunity of calling it to the attention of the people."

SAVES FIVE FROM RIVER SINGLEHANDED

LONDON.—A man, woman and a girl were rowboating on the river Thames. The craft upset, throwing two into the water. J. Oxford swam out from shore and rescued them. The boat overturned again, throwing the three occupants into the river. Oxford saved all three this time.

DEMOCRATS DODGE TAX ISSUE

The party which in 1916 "kept us out of war" is now trying to camouflage its record of enormous increase in taxes.

False claims are made in the Democratic party's "ten reasons why taxes in Weber county are higher" that prohibition has deprived the county of approximately $50,000 in revenue per annum. This glaring untruth is a parcel of the whole campaign of Weber county "tax grabbers" to deceive the public.

NOT ONE CENT OF REVENUE WAS BEING RECEIVED
BY WEBER COUNTY FROM LIQUOR LICENSES
WHEN THE DEMOCRATS GAINED CONTROL OF THE COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Some other explanation of where the $50,000 went is due the citizens of Weber county. Likewise as to the following from the records:

The total tax levy for purely county purposes, exclusive of schools and state road funds for the year 1916 (the last year of Republican control) totaled $111,982.76. This sum was all the Republicans received to administer the county government.

For the same purposes, for the year 1920, the tax levies are $235,849.08.

This is an increase of $124,866.31—more than 100 per cent.

RETAIL SHOE DEALERS
CANCEL MANY ORDERS

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—A campaign against retail dealers who, it was declared, have cancelled orders and made "excessive returns" on account of the falling market in the last four weeks was inaugurated at the annual conference of the Western Association of Shoe Wholesalers Friday.

Resolutions were adopted urging the National Shoe Retailers association to aid in correcting the "trade abuses," which it was asserted have forced losses on manufacturers.

The association also endorsed a proposal to seek the assistance of credit bureaus in curtailing the credit of dealers who refuse to arbitrate.

All officers of the association were re-elected. They are: P. A. Becker, St. Louis, president; Glen E. Wharton, Omaha, Neb., vice pres.; and S. M. Campbell, Chicago, secretary-treasurer.

VICTIM OF SOUTHERN MOB TO BEGIN PROSECUTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Peter McMahon, who said he was beaten and nearly lynched at Trenton, N. C., Tuesday night by a band of eight men, who forced him to take a train north, arrived at his home Friday after receiving treatment at Philadelphia.

McMahon said that for many years he had been personal attendant and chauffeur for James Powell, former bank president of Aiken, S. C., who had appointed his daughter Florence, administratrix of his estate when he lost his eyesight. Her two sisters disappeared of the manner in which she ran the estate, he said. McMahon is married and has three children.
